Matthew 4:19

- I was in Florida at my grandchildren's track meet last week. An opportunity presented itself to minister the baptism of the Holy Spirit with one of the moms. Glory!!!!
- In Temple Hills visiting my son today. I was there to receive his new furniture while he was at work. When the delivery truck arrived, I noticed one of the delivery men ran to help someone across the street. I did hear someone scream but I didn't see who or what was happening. The delivery man eventually came to the door and he and his team brought the furniture in and during that process, he began to tell me what happened and asked if I would go over and check on the elderly lady that fell off her porch because she was there watching her grandchildren. He said he told them to call an ambulance or their parents because of her age. I went over after the furniture was delivered to check on her. She was sitting in the living room and answered the door. She had called her daughter and her daughter was on her way home. She said she was in pain on the left side of her head, and I could tell she was shaken up. She had also cut her hand. I asked her if I could pray for her, and she said yes, please do. So, I did. Pain relieved and she asked me to stop in to see her when I visit again. She and her grandchildren are precious. Glory!!!
- A co-worker I Med me this week. I had not talked to her in a year. She said, she had been thinking of me this week and wanted to reach out. How sweet God is? Prayer works people!!! We chatted and eventually she told me she was having reproductive health issues and she was hoping to have a child soon and to get a husband. God, God, God!!! Refreshed her memory of Sara, Hannah, Elizabeth, and of course Mary. Her great heritage of women that the Lord blessed their womb. Also shared with her the testimony of a distant relative that is engaged to be married in October. I just met up with her 2 weeks ago. She had written out what she wanted in a husband and submitted it the Lord and thanked Him for it daily. In a year's time Mr. Right was present!!! Woohoo!!! This will be her second husband. Her first husband passed away 3 years ago. The Lord is Good!!!
